Julien,

Thank you for letting me know. That is a great relief for me. I would appreciate knowing where he is being relocated so that I may take extra precautions to avoid that area. I do not want to be walking around on campus being vulnerable and feeling unsafe. Thank you.

Just to update you both on our conversation yesterday, [REDACTED] has agreed to temporarily relocate to another residence on campus pending investigation and resolution of the current matter. This relocation will happen at some point over the next few days (before this Sunday evening).

Please be advised that [REDACTED] is not banned from the Town Houses or any other location on campus so there is still the possibility that you may see him on campus. The previously enacted no contact order will remain in place as the investigation continues.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions.
